TOUR GUIDE

SATURDAY APRIL 22, 2017

Early Arrival Tour (organized by Hogan Lovells)

11.00am – 4.00pm Junk Trip and Island Lunch

Join us for a traditional Junk trip to one of Hong Kong's idyllic islands. We will have a whistle stop tour of the harbour to take in the famous Hong Kong skyline before heading to one of Hong Kong's beautiful islands. Here you will enjoy seeing a quieter way of life away from the hustle and bustle of the city and get to experience lunch at a local seafood restaurant on the waterfront.

Please note the trip is limited to 30 delegates and will be dependent on weather conditions.

For those who are confirmed on the junk trip, the group departure will leave at 11.00am from the main lobby of the Island Shangri-La for the 15 minute walk over to Central ferry pier 9 where the junk will leave promptly at 11:30am. Please gather in the main lobby of the Island Shangri-La before the 11.00am departure.

If you wish to make your own way to the pier 9, please arrive before 11:30am. A taxi from the Island Shangri-La to Pier 9 would take about 10 minutes.

Please bring any motion sickness remedies if you need them.

Suggested Dress code: Casual, comfortable shoes recommended.

Cost: Junk travel courtesy of Hogan Lovells. Participants pay lunch costs.

SUNDAY APRIL 23, 2017

PRAC Delegation Tour and Luncheon

11:00am – 4.00pm An afternoon at the races

Sha Tin Racecourse is a racecourse of superlatives – the home of the world's richest day of turf racing, the world's first retractable roof over a parade ring, and a Guinness World Record of the world's longest Diamond Vision Television screen in 2003. Enjoy a trip to this world famous race course and find out more about the sport and maybe discover a lucky tip for the next race.

There will be a coach departing from the Island Shangri-La promptly at 11.00am to Sha Tin Racecourse. Please gather in the main lobby of the Island Shangri-La at least 15 minutes prior to departure.

Sha Tin Racecourse Address: Box F630, 6/F Grandstand II, The Hong Kong Jockey Club Sha Tin Racecourse Stand, Sha Tin, Hong Kong.

We have arranged a coach to bring us back to the hotel, but can also provide taxi directions if you prefer to leave earlier.

Suggested dress code: Smart Casual, no jeans or shorts

Cost: This is a PRAC sponsored event – no cost for Delegates & Accompanying Guests

OPTIONAL TOURS

MONDAY APRIL 24, 2017

Accompanying Guest Optional Tour #1

10:30am – 3.00pm

Jade and Pearl Market and Lunch

To the Chinese, jade is associated with long life and good health. Very often, you see people wearing a jade bracelet, which they believe wards off all health hazards. It is also common for grandmothers to purchase a piece of jade for newborns. Purchase your very own piece of jade from a large collection of vendors selling an array of jade jewelry including pearls and ornaments at the Jade market in Yau Ma Tei. Then we will stop at Hutong, a fabulous restaurant featuring the cuisine of Northern China, for lunch with breathtaking views of Victoria Harbour.

Suggested dress code: Casual

HK$750/per person (covers lunch and transport)

TUESDAY, APRIL 25

Accompanying Guest Optional Tour #2

10.30am – 3.00pm

Foot Massage, Reflexology and a Gourmet Lunch

Foot massages are a popular part of daily life in Hong Kong helping to relieve stress and ailments through reflexology, a tradition that dates back thousands of years. Spend a morning relaxing and being pampered before heading to one of the trendiest spots in Hong Kong for a spot of lunch, Aberdeen Street Social.

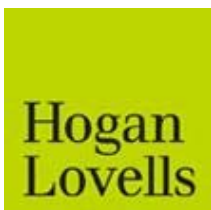

Suggested dress code: Casual

HK$900/ per person (covers foot massage, transport and lunch)

Note: Due to limited participation, all tours previously booked with Spoilt Tours have been cancelled and instead, Hogan Lovells is offering a more personalized tour experience guided by Hogan Lovells' Accompanying Guests (extraordinaire!) Jane Fletcher and Joy Sherrington who have graciously offered to be your tour hosts.
